7 Day 'World Tour of Ireland'

Look no further, you have just found the best possible way to tour Ireland. A whole week to explore, relax, absorb, refresh and learn about this fascinating and beautiful island. We have combined all the best elements of our 3, 4, and 5 day tours of Ireland, added a pinch of Blarney and created an Irish vacation that is worth flying round the world for.

First the tour heads down to the South West to Cork and Kerry and the three peninsulas of Beara, Iveragh (The Ring of Kerry) and Dingle. Then we will take you across the River Shannon into County Clare with the Burren and the Cliffs of Moher before heading north into Galway and the wild Connemara region. Then spending the last night in County Mayo. You will see a huge proportion of Ireland's best scenery (just ask any Irish person), get right away from the beaten track but also experience the highlights.

As with all of Vagabond's tours of Ireland unique mixture of outdoor activity, great scenery, relaxing pubs and loads of laughs. At night we stay in first class Irish B&B and small-hotel accommodation Seven days means that you are never rushed but you will see so much that you may think you have been travelling for weeks.
